1 ACCEPTANCE

- 1.1 The purchase order, together with these terms and conditions, and any attachments and exhibits, specifications, drawings, notes, instructions and other information, whether physically attached or incorporated by reference (collectively the "Purchase Order"), constitutes the entire and exclusive agreement between the Navico company ("Navico") and the supplier (the "Supplier") identified in the Purchase Order.
- 1.2 Navico's submission of the Purchase Order is expressly conditioned on Supplier's agreement that any terms different from or in addition to the terms of the Purchase Order, whether communicated orally or contained in any purchase order confirmation, invoice, acknowledgement, release, acceptance or other written correspondence, irrespective of the timing, shall not form a part of the Purchase Order, even if Supplier purports to condition its acceptance of the Purchase Order on Navico's agreement to such different or additional terms.
- 1.3 Supplier's electronic acceptance, acknowledgement of the Purchase Order, or commencement of performance constitutes Supplier's acceptance of these terms and conditions. The Purchase Order supersedes any or all prior or contemporaneous oral or written communications with respect to the subject matter hereof. No modification, waiver or amendment hereof shall be binding unless in writing and signed by Navico.
- 1.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a separate master contract or other definitive agreement covering procurement of the Products or Work described in the Purchase Order exists between Supplier and Navico, the terms of such master agreement shall prevail over any inconsistent terms herein.

Supplier will immediately notify Navico if Supplier's timely performance under the Purchase Order is delayed or is likely to be delayed. Navico's acceptance of Supplier's notice will not constitute Navico's waiver of any of Supplier's obligations.
- 3.2 Save for instances of delay which are due to causes beyond the reasonable control and without the fault or negligence of Supplier, if Supplier fails to deliver Work as specified in the Purchase Order then without prejudice to any other rights it may have, Navico may upon written notice to Supplier: (i) cancel the Purchase Order in whole or part; (ii) refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Work which the Supplier attempts to make; (iii) recover from the Supplier any expenditure reasonably incurred by Navico in obtaining the Work in substitution from another supplier; and (iv) claim liquidated damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by Navico which are directly attributable to the Supplier's failure to deliver the Work on the due date. Supplier and Navico agree that such amounts, if assessed, (i) are an exclusive remedy for the agreed delay period; (ii) are a reasonable pre-estimate of the damages Navico will suffer as a result of delay based on circumstances existing at the time the Purchase Order was issued and (iii) are to be assessed as liquidated damages and not as a penalty. In the absence of agreed to liquidated damages, Navico shall be entitled to recover damages that it incurs as a result of Supplier's failure to deliver as stated in the Purchase Order. Any items which are not accepted by Navico or returned to Supplier under Section 8.3 and which are marked with any trademark (including, without limitation any logo), both registered and common law, will be destroyed by Supplier. In no event will Supplier deliver or sell any such items to any third party.

- 3.5 Supplier will preserve, pack, package and handle the Deliverables and Products so as to protect the Deliverables and Work Product from loss or damage and in accordance with best commercial practices in the absence of any specifications Navico may provide. - 4.4 Navico may, at any time, set-off any amounts Supplier owes Navico against any amounts Navico owes to Supplier or any of its affiliated companies.

5 OWNERSHIP

At Navico's option, Navico may (i) return the non- conforming Work to Supplier for a refund or credits; (ii) require Supplier to immediately replace the non-conforming Work; or (iii) immediately repair the non-conforming Work so that it meets the requirements. As an alternative to (i) through (iii), Navico may accept the non-conforming Work conditioned on Supplier providing a refund or credit in an amount Navico reasonably determines to represent the diminished value of the non-conforming Work.
- 6.2 Navico's payment to Supplier for Work prior to Navico's timely rejection of such Work as non- conforming will not be deemed as acceptance by Navico. Notwithstanding any inspection or testing, the Supplier shall remain fully responsible for the Products and any such inspection or testing shall not diminish or otherwise affect the Supplier's obligations under the Purchase Order. If any of the Products fail to comply with the provisions set out in this Section, Navico shall be entitled to avail itself of any one or more remedies under this Agreement.

7 CHANGE IN SPECIFICATIONS

- 7.1 Navico may, at any time, change the Work by changing (i) the quantity of the Work (ii) the scope of Services; (iii) the Delivery Date; (iv) applicable drawings, designs, and specifications, (v) the method of shipment or packing; (vi) the place of delivery of the Work; or (vii) the location for Services to be performed.
- 7.2 If a change by Navico under Section 7.1 causes an increase or decrease in the cost of or the time required for Supplier's performance, then the price, Delivery Date or both will be equitably adjusted, and the parties will amend the Purchase Order accordingly in writing. Supplier will request an equitable adjustment no later than 20 days from Supplier's receipt of Navico's notification of a change; provided, however, that Navico may extend the request period upon Supplier's request.
- 7.3 Supplier will proceed with the Work, both changed and unchanged, pending negotiation of an equitable adjustment and amendment of the Purchase Order.

8 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- 8.1 Supplier represents and warrants that (i) it has the full power to enter into the Purchase Order and to perform its obligations under the Purchase Order; (ii) it has the right and unrestricted ability to assign the Work to Navico including, without limitation, the right to assign any Work performed by Supplier Personnel and Subcontractors; (iii) the Work, and Navico's use of the Work, do not and will not infringe upon any third party's Intellectual Property Rights, right of publicity or privacy, or any other proprietary rights, whether contractual, statutory or common law; (iv) Supplier will not disclose to Navico, bring onto Navico's premises, or induce Navico to use any confidential or proprietary information that belongs to anyone other than Navico or Supplier which is not covered by a non-disclosure agreement between Navico and Supplier; (v) Software supplied by Supplier does not contain any Harmful Code; (vi) Supplier's Work conforms to Navico's specifications, Supplier's quotation or proposal, and Supplier's brochures or catalogs, and if none of the foregoing is applicable, then such Work is suitable for the intended use; (vii) Supplier's Work will be new, of merchantable quality, and free from all defects, whether patent or latent, and that the workmanship is of the highest standards; and (viii) no Products contain or include components (a) containing PCB' (polychlorinated biphenyls) chemical substances, (b) manufactured using a cadmium plating process or contain a chemical substance or mixture that is or becomes subject to a reporting requirement under Section 8(e) of the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. - 8.3 If any defect, failure or other non-conformity appears, Navico shall have the right to: (i) retain such defective items and an equitable adjustment will be made in the Purchase Order price for such defective items; (ii) require Supplier to repair or replace such defective items, at the Supplier's sole expense including all shipping, transportation and installation costs or (iii) correct or replace such defective items with similar items and recover the total costs thereof from the Supplier. The aforesaid Warranties shall survive acceptance and payment and shall run to Navico, its customers and their successors in title and shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but shall be in addition to Navico's other rights under the terms of the Purchase Order or at law or equity.

- 8.4 Navico warrants and represents to Supplier that it has the full power to enter into the Purchase Order and to perform its obligations under the Purchase Order.

9 ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

- 9.1 Supplier may not assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under the Purchase Order without Navico's prior written consent, which Navico will not unreasonably withhold. If Supplier fails to timely pay a Subcontractor for work performed, Navico will have the right, but not the obligation, to pay the Subcontractor and offset any amount due to Supplier by any amount paid to the Subcontractor. Supplier will defend, indemnify and hold Navico harmless for all damages and costs of any kind, without limitation, incurred by Navico and caused by Supplier's failure to pay a Subcontractor.
- 9.3 To the extent allowed by applicable law, no person who is not a party to Purchase Order shall be entitled to enforce or take the benefit of any of its terms whether as a result of applicable legislation, custom or otherwise.

10 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 10.1 The Purchase Order shall continue for the time period stated on the applicable SOW or Purchase Order, and if no term is stated, the Purchase Order shall continue until the Products are delivered and accepted, or until the Services are performed.
- 10.2 Navico may terminate this Purchase Order, any SOW, or both at any time, for no reason or for any reason, upon 15 days written notice to Supplier. Upon receipt of notice of such termination, Supplier shall cease Work, will inform Navico of the extent to which it has completed performance as of the date of the notice, and Supplier will collect and deliver to Navico whatever Work then exists. Navico will pay Supplier fair and reasonable compensation for all Work performed and accepted through the effective date of the termination, provided that Navico will not be obligated to pay any more than the payment that would have become due had Supplier completed and Navico had accepted the Work. - 10.6 Any obligations or duties which, by their nature, extend beyond the expiration or termination of the Purchase Order shall survive the expiration or termination of the Purchase Order.

11 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 11.1 If Navico and Supplier have entered into a Non-Disclosure Agreement ("NDA") which covers disclosure of confidential information under the Purchase Order, and if the term of the NDA expires before the expiration or termination of the Purchase Order, then the term of the NDA shall be automatically extended to match the term of the Purchase Order.
- 11.2 The parties shall treat the terms, conditions, and existence of the Purchase Order as Confidential Information as defined in the NDA

Because a violation by Supplier of the provisions of this Section 11.3 could cause irreparable injury to Navico and there is no remedy at law for such violation, Navico shall be entitled, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity, to equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance without posting a bond, as a remedy for any such violations.

The Indemnifying Party will have no authority to compromise or settle any Claim on the Indemnified Party's behalf without the Indemnified Party's consent.
- 12.6 If a third party enjoins or interferes with Navico's use of any Work, then in addition to Supplier's obligations under Section 12.2, Supplier will use its best efforts to (i) obtain any licenses necessary to permit Navico to continue to use the Work; (ii) replace or modify the Work as necessary to permit Navico to continue to use of the Work; or if (i) and (ii) are not commercially reasonable, then (iii) promptly refund to Navico the amount paid for any Work for which a third party enjoins or interferes with Navico's use of the Work.

These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or national origin. Moreover, these regulations require that covered prime contractors and subcontractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, protected veteran status or disability. Navico, Inc. is a federal, state and local government contractor subject to various non-discrimination and affirmative action compliance requirements, including but not limited to Executive Order 11246, as amended, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended. The implementing regulations regarding the laws listed in this paragraph require federal contractors to send to their subcontractors, including subcontracting vendors and suppliers, information about the federal contractors' non-discrimination and affirmative action policies, and to "request appropriate action" on the subcontractors' part. Accordingly, Navico hereby notifies Supplier about Navico's important non-discrimination and affirmative action policies and efforts and requests appropriate action on the Supplier's part. Where legally required, Supplier shall include these clauses in its purchase orders supporting this Purchase Order, and shall at Navico's request certify to all of the foregoing. The cooperation of the Supplier is appreciated to ensure equal employment opportunity and affirmative action throughout Navico's organization and its subcontracting chain.
